

Amerivest Privacy Statement

Protecting your privacy is extremely important to Amerivest. We guarantee to use the latest technology and adhere to the most stringent confidentiality procedures in the market to keep your personal information confidential. We will not share, sell and/or expose your information to anyone. By ensuring that you are aware of and understand the Amerivest Client Privacy Policy, we can provide you with better service. Please take a moment to read the following policy to learn how we handle your personal information. If you have any questions, concerns, or comments about the Amerivest Client Privacy Policy, please feel free to contact us at 408-293-6910 or via email at info@amerivestonline.com

The personal information we collect is limited to the information that you provide to us when you sign for and use our services. This information consists of your name, address, email address, phone number, social security number, date of birth, and billing information. Additionally, you will provide the information contained on your credits reports to Amerivest in order for us to provide our service.

We collect personal information to enroll you in our service and to provide our services for you. Once you have retained Amerivest, we use your personal information to correct inaccuracies, mistakes, and misleading items on your credit reports. Additionally, we use your personal information to provide you with superior customer service, and to communicate with you regarding your case. We also use your personal information to keep you up to date on the latest service announcements, feature updates, special offers, and other information we think you would like to hear about.

We collect information about you at the time you sign up for our service, and any time we enter information from your credit report into our database in order to facilitate your progress. All personal information our clients provide is stored in a secure database for the sole purpose of rendering our services to you.

Amerivest maintains strict policies and procedures to protect the confidentiality of your personal information. The ability to communicate with our clients during any part of the credit recovery process is absolutely essential and, as a result, your personal information may be shared internally with other Amerivest employees. They will protect your personal information in accordance with the Amerivest Customer Privacy Policy.

Amerivest works with other companies that help us provide Amerivest services to you, and we may provide your personal information to these companies. For example, should we need to forward written documents to you we give shipping companies this information so they can deliver more efficiently. The information they receive is for shipping and delivery purposes only, and we require that the companies safeguard your personal information in accordance with Amerivest's policies.

Amerivest will not share, sell, transfer or convey your personal information to any unaffiliated companies or third parties which are not necessary to perform our services unless you specify otherwise.

Amerivest safeguards the security of the data you send us with physical, electronic, and managerial procedures. We urge you to take every precaution to protect your personal data when you are on the Internet. Change your passwords often, using a combination of letters and numbers, and make sure you use a secure browser.

To make sure your personal information remains confidential, we communicate the foregoing privacy guidelines to every Amerivest employee and staff member.

The Amerivest Customer Privacy Policy is subject to change at any time. We encourage you to review the privacy policy regularly for any changes. If you have any questions, concerns, or comments about the Amerivest Client Privacy Policy, please feel free to contact us at 408-293-6910 or contact us via email at info@amerivestonline.com
